

What Partnering with AVA Means for You and Your Kids

W E B I N A R

Expanding Access. Empowering Futures.

★ Who We Are

- 100% online, accredited, tuition-free school
- Designed for flexibility, academic rigor, and real-world readiness
- Serving elementary, middle and high school students across Arizona and beyond

★ Why It Matters:

- Many students face barriers to traditional schooling
- Our model supports learners who need flexible schedules—athletes, caregivers, working teens, and more
- We prepare students for college, careers, and life—on their terms

Student Spotlight:

Lucy McPherson

- ★ Lucy McPherson graduated AVA in 2023 while pursuing her dream—Forensic Psychology
- ★ Flexible pacing and supportive teachers kept her engaged and on track
- ★ She finished strong—college-bound and confident in her future

Talk to us at info@americanvirtualacademy.com

A School That Moves with You

We proudly serve military-connected families by providing a fully accredited, 100% online education that ensures continuity—no matter the relocation, deployment, or duty station.

From kindergarten through high school, AVA supports students with:

- ★ Seamless transitions between states and time zones
- ★ Structured routines with flexible pacing
- ★ Curriculum aligned to college and career pathways

We're ready and open to collaborating with organizations that care deeply about educational stability for military families.

Our Commitment to Military Families

We honor your service by providing the flexibility, stability, and values-based education your family deserves.

As an Arizona Purple Star School and proud Military Child Education Coalition partner, we provide:

- ★ Dedicated military family liaison
- ★ Simplified enrollment and credit transfer
- ★ Specialized staff training on military family needs
- ★ Peer and community support programs
- ★ Military tuition discounts and scholarships

We're ready and open to collaborating with organizations that care deeply about educational stability for military families.

Student Spotlight:

Alexander Nicoll

- ★ Frequent moves once disrupted Alexander's education
- ★ At The Bridge School (now AVA), he finished his senior year while working full-time in political communications
- ★ Flexible scheduling and courses like Civics & Government kept him on track—and ahead
- ★ His story shows what's possible when education adapts to military life

Join our mission: americanvirtualacademy.com

Train. Travel. Compete. Graduate—with Confidence.

At AVA, we've built an academic model that works for high-performing student-athletes.

Our 100% online, accredited platform flexes around demanding training schedules—while ensuring students stay on pace for college, scholarships, and NCAA eligibility.

Partnering with us means:

- ★ Academic continuity for athletes in motion
- ★ Customized pacing and one-on-one support
- ★ Proven pathways to graduation and recruitment

We collaborate with coaches, gyms, clubs, training centers, and athletic foundations to help student-athletes succeed in every arena.

Student Spotlight: Courtney Henry

- ★ Trained 33 hours a week as an elite gymnast while maintaining a 3.91 GPA
- ★ AVA's flexibility and rigor made academic and athletic success possible
- ★ Earned a full-ride athletic scholarship to Southeast Missouri State University

Contact us: info@americanvirtualacademy.com

Your Stage is Global. So is Your School.

Performing artists need an academic model that moves with them. AVA delivers:

- ★ Fully accredited, 100% online education
- ★ Flexible pacing for training, auditions, and tours
- ★ Personalized support to maintain academic excellence

We partner with arts programs, studios, and talent mentors to ensure student-artists never have to choose between passion and performance.

Student Spotlight:

Sara Guo

- ★ Trained intensively as a dedicated ballet dancer while completing studies at AVA (formerly The Bridge School)
- ★ Accepted into Juilliard and named a U.S. Presidential Scholars semifinalist
- ★ Her journey shows that artistic excellence and academic rigor can thrive together

Discover how: americanvirtualacademy.com

Take the Lead in Learning— We'll Back You Up.

Families today are crafting personalized learning paths—and they need flexible, credible support.

AVA delivers a full academic framework for homeschoolers and alternative learners, including:

- ★ Accredited curriculum & certified teacher support
- ★ Self-paced learning with real accountability
- ★ College & career readiness resources

We partner with homeschool networks, microschools, and family learning communities to expand access without compromising values or autonomy.

Student Spotlight:

Hannah Niketh

- ★ Balanced homeschooling and competitive athletics with AVA's flexible model
- ★ Thrived through one-on-one teacher support and adaptable scheduling
- ★ Proves that structure can empower student-led education

Learn more: americanvirtualacademy.com

Stability. Structure. Support. No Matter the Setting.

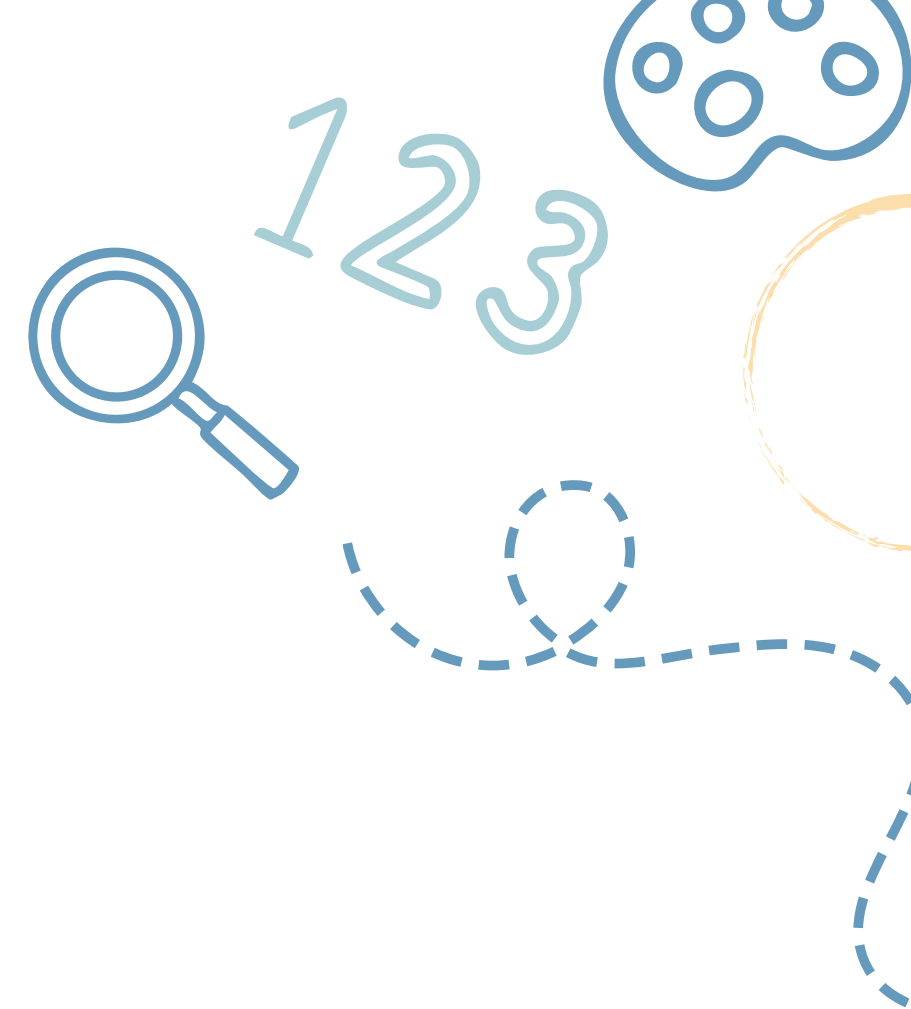

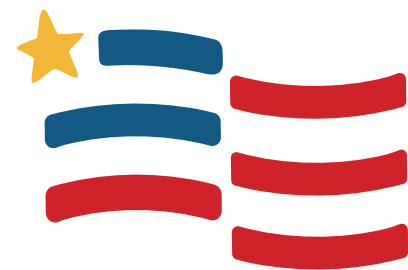

Students in residential treatment deserve more than worksheets and learning loss—they deserve progress and success.

American Virtual Academy partners with residential care organizations to provide a flexible, fully accredited online school that integrates seamlessly into your care model. Together, we ensure every student continues to learn and thrive through:

- ★ Academic continuity during and after mental health and behavioral treatment
- ★ Customizable pacing to meet therapeutic schedules
- ★ Certified teachers trained in trauma-sensitive communication
- ★ Credit recovery, high school completion, and college prep pathways

Our team collaborates directly with RTC staff to deliver consistent, supported education throughout each student's care journey.

Explore partnership solutions at americanvirtualacademy.com

Thank You

Ready to learn more about AVA?

